WAR MONEY.

Tokens privately issued during the War of the Rebellion. They were current throughout the Northern States, from 1861 to 1867, when their use was prohibited. While there are many duplicates, the assortment is one that will be most welcome to dealers and those who made a specialty of the series. Only a general classification has been attempted. Designs and those with merchants names, are separated, the latter into states or cities. Condition, for the greater portion, is uncirculated, red.
